Welcoming Statement

The members of Redeemer Lutheran Church believe that God loves, forgives, and calls each of us unconditionally and that every human being is created in the image of God. As a result, we welcome all people into our community of faith and invite them to join us as we are embraced and changed by God's love for us and strive to be faithful messengers of that love in the world. Because Jesus calls us to healing and wholeness, we stand against all forms of prejudice and injustice, especially racism, and join hands with all people everywhere regardless of race, age, gender identity or expression, relationship status, physical and intellectual abilities, sexual orientation, religious or nonreligious affiliation, national origin, ethnicity, or social and economic status. We celebrate both the diversity of God's creation and our unity as God's people.
